

Experts in your field, and ours

We know that the agriculture industry has specific needs that are different than other businesses out there. We take pride in providing accounting and consulting services to a wide variety of clients, from primary producers to agri-businesses and all of those who support the sector. We understand that no matter your size, the challenges are often similar: access to cash, labour shortages, ever-changing legislation, and the environment, to name a few.

Services we offer include:

- Succession & Estate Planning
- Tax Planning
- Sale or purchase of a farm or business
- WSIB and EHT Compliance and Planning
- Compensation planning
- HST filing

Succession & Estate Planning

Transitioning a large operation to the next generation is undoubtedly a complex process. Our team of experts not only understands the financial side of this type of transaction, but also the emotional impact as well. We provide crucial services like valuations, financial planning, paired with advisory services built from years of experience.

Financial Reporting

Regardless of whether your farming operation or agri-business is a fifth-generation enterprise, or experiencing the struggles associated with growing and modernizing, RLB offers a wide range of services to support you in your business.

HST Expertise

Are you unsure of when to register for HST? Do you have an HST audit you need support with? Are you working or supplying goods to provinces other than Ontario and looking for help with the sales taxes you need to remit? No worries, we will guide you through the process and can work with CRA on your behalf.

Tax Planning

We know there are times when personal tax planning can be... taxing. The team at RLB will work with you to create a personal tax plan with advice and guidance along the way. We can help you with compensation planning, as well as tax-deferred transfer of assets, and the completion and filing of all required estate returns.
